

Human Relations

With people moving from rural to urban areas, from cities to suburbs and from one part of the nation to the other, the district has an obligation to help students know and appreciate different physical environments, cultural backgrounds and lifestyles.

The Board is committed to an educational system that will prepare students to function effectively and cooperatively in a pluralistic society. The attainment of this goal makes necessary deliberate efforts to provide an atmosphere which reflects:

1. Respect for one's self and others, regardless of economic status, intellectual or physical ability, sex, age, race, color, religion, creed or ethnic origin;
2. Respect for cultural differences;
3. Respect for the economic, political and social rights of others;
4. Respect for the rights of others to seek and maintain their own identities.

The Board shall endorse curriculum which emphasizes a positive human relations attitude.

The Board shall work with other institutions and agencies to develop improved human relations in the state.

The Board shall periodically review the implementation of the human relations policy.
