

Code: JECBB
Adopted: February 8, 2007

Intradistrict Transfer Students

Students in a given attendance area must attend the designated school for that area.

If it is a benefit to the district, students may be allowed (on a case by case basis) to attend a school other than their designated school. All allowances granted will end with the end of the school year.

The Lincoln County School District Administrative Committee may entertain requests for exceptions to paragraph #1 (above) based on hardship or other circumstances. Any exception granted ends with the end of the school year.

Parents of students who are granted an exception under paragraph #3 (above) shall be responsible for transporting their student(s) to and from the school site.

Any appeals will be directed to the Lincoln County Board of School Trustees.
