

Solicitation Prohibited

Employee Activities

Distribution of literature by employees in work areas or solicitation by employees during work time on behalf of any club, society, labor union, religious organization, political party, philanthropic or similar organization, or for any purpose whatsoever is strictly prohibited. Distribution of information and correspondence related to the administration of a collective bargaining agreement by officers, consultants, and business representatives of a recognized employee organization may be allowed pursuant to the terms of a collective bargaining agreement.

Non-Employee Activities

Non-employees will not be allowed on the premises for the purpose of distribution of literature to employees or solicitation of employees at any time whatsoever, except as specifically provided below.

Consultants and business representatives of recognized employee organizations are allowed access to employees as allowed by the specific terms of a current collective bargaining agreement.

Representatives of employee benefit programs (e.g., supplemental insurance or deferred compensation) specifically approved by the District for payment through payroll deduction may meet with employees during designated work time at designated places or on District property as may be approved by the appropriate District representative.
